Lesson 4: Mindful Talking
Role play a scenario whereby you put an empty chair in front of you and pretend that the person in that chair is Hamza (from case study 4). You are Callum. Speak to him in a respectful way, whereby you express to him how what he did made you feel. Explain to him why it made you feel this way. You can repeat this exercise until you feel comfortable with this.