Look at the example below. The boy in the story is called ‘Gabe’.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>What I know</th>
<th>What I think based on what I know</th>
<th>A question I want to raise</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Gabe was thirsty and desperate for a drink.</td>
<td>It’s really hot, as the sand is dry and the sun is bright.</td>
<td>Why is it so hot if it is the Christmas holiday (it’s cold in London)?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. Write your own version of the story. Change the character ‘Gabe’ to yourself. Use the word bank to include powerful verbs and adverbs.
