Malala Yousafzai

Malala was born on 12th July, 1997 in Mingora, Pakistan, to a Sunni Muslim family.

The Qur’an states that all Muslims should acquire knowledge.

This influenced her father, who believed in education for all. He founded a number of schools in Pakistan, one of which Malala attended.

The Taliban, a terrorist group from Afghanistan, started to take control of the areas where Malala was living. They banned education for girls over the age of eight.
